FERPA forms and Procedures – May 2014

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)

Annually Roger Williams University informs students of the Family Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), as amended and that it fully complies with the various provisions. This Act was designed to protect the privacy of educational records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review educational records, and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings. Students also have the right to file complaints with the Family Policy Compliance Office concerning alleged failure by the institution to comply with the Act. Questions can be referred to the Office of the Registrar.

Institutions may disclose information on a student without violating FERPA if it has designated the information as directory information. At Roger Williams University, this includes:

- Student Name
- Local Telephone Numbers
- Honors and Awards Received
- Dates and/or Verification of Attendance
- Verification of Graduation and Degree(s) Received
- Participation in Officially Recognized Activities and Sport
- Weight and Height of Members of Athletic Teams
- Most Recent Previous Educational Institution Attended
- Local Address
- Classification
- Photograph
- E-mail Address
- Expected Date of Graduation
- Degree Program
- Major Area of Study
- Enrollment Status

Other information is designated as restricted. In most cases such records will not be released to a third party without written release from the student specifying which records are to be released, and to whom.

With regard to parental access, the Guidelines for Postsecondary Institutions for Implementation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 as Amended Revised Edition 1986 states, “At the postsecondary level, parents have no inherent rights to inspect a student’s educational records. The right to inspect is limited solely to the student. Records may be released only through express written permission by the student or in compliance with a subpoena.”

By clicking “SUBMIT” below and completing the following screens, I authorize Roger Williams University to release information about me during the period I am enrolled. This includes my academic status, classroom conduct, course attendance, grades and other necessary academic information for the sole purpose of assisting me in my efforts to be academically successful. I understand that I have the right to terminate this authorization at any time by sending written notice to the Registrar.
